An elegant suggestion of another way of seeing and living in the city

Two giraffes and their youngster stroll through the city accompanied by musicians who playfully recreate a dreamlike, savannah atmosphere.

Spectacular, visual, with no set script, these delightful denizens silently advance, communicating and connecting with the public they encounter or take by surprise.

This proposal is delicate, elegant; suggesting another way of seeing the city or any other space, through the ingenious, curious gaze of this gentle giraffe family.

A wordless show that's the sheer height of entertainment – for public of all ages.
